STRATEGIC SETTLEMENTS

Tay Robinson is a Northern Kentucky/Greater Cincinnati native who, after college, began his career as a financial planner with Cigna Financial Advisors. Thereafter, with many attorneys themselves as his financial clients, Tay left Cigna to start Strategic Settlements in order to focus his financial practice primarily on settlement annuities. After 15+ successful years, Tay is trusted and dedicated to providing competent, coherent and prompt expertise to everyone receiving a financial settlement.

Tay speaks frequently at legal education seminars. In addition, he has been published several times, including chapters in Handling the Brain Injury Case (published by the Kentucky Justice Association) and in the Workers Compensation Handbook (published by the University of Kentucky).

Whether you are an attorney or an injured party, Tay can and will provide the precise expertise you need to strategically and successfully structure your settlement recovery to protect your future and the future of your loved ones.
